I am a permanent resident of the Chester area, bounded to the west by the east bank of the Middle River, to the east by the west bank of the East River, to the north by Highway 103, and to the south by the Atlantic Ocean. All islands between Middle River and East River connected to the mainland are considered part of the Chester area. The address above is designated my Principal Residence according to the Federal Income Tax Act and/or Nova Scotia Health Act. I have resided there for a minimum of two years. If when my application is accepted I have lived there for less than five years I agree to pay an initiation fee of $1500 + HST. I have enclosed a copy of my driver's licence and last property tax bill or rental lease.

____ Senior – Summer Resident

For the past two years I have owned property in the Village of Chester Summer Area (VCSA) and reside there for at least four weeks annually. The VCSA is bounded to the west by the intersection of Hwy 3 and Hwy 14 (Countway's Store, 4359 Hwy 3) and to the east by the intersection of Hwy 3 and The Commons Road (East Chester Recreation Association, 3292 Hwy 3). Membership in this category is restricted to the summer resident plus spouse. "Spouse" includes a common law spouse or registered domestic partner as defined by the Vital Statistics Act. If at the time my application is accepted I have lived in the VCSA for less than five consecutive years I agree to pay an initiation fee of $1500 + HST. I have enclosed a copy of my driver's licence and last property tax bill.
